

Outcomes for Team Meetings

Team	Outcomes for Meeting
School leadership team	To analyze teacher retention data to inform our plan for next year's new teacher support systems. To assess the impact of our PD on reading comprehension in semester one so that we can revise our plan for Semester 2. To understand the work plans for each department so that we can support each other and hold each other accountable. To analyze student attendance data so we can modify our advisory curriculum. To make decisions about next year's master schedule.
School administrative team	To understand the new protocol for receiving new students and agree on a schedule. To decide on the teacher evaluation calendar and align our practices for evaluations. To review office referral data and identify the key moments in the day when we need to be in the halls. To discuss the conflict we had last week in the staff meeting and identify next steps. To understand each other's leadership history and styles so that we can align on our roles and empathize with each other.
District math leadership team	To report on the implementation of the new math curriculum and share challenges and successes. To plan for district-wide professional development on new curriculum. To decide on a focus area for the second semester's PD for teachers. To review the new assessment tools, clarify confusion about the process, and plan for how to introduce these to teachers.